Mississippi Delta, 1932. Twin brothers open a juke joint on the night something older than the town follows the music through the door. A period horror with a musical spine and a contained single-location second half.

- Festival premiere completed; press quotes available on request.
- Strong performance expected in territories with an established horror theatrical habit.
- Music rights cleared worldwide in perpetuity for all media.

A Quiet Place

RUNTIME	91 minutes
LANGUAGE	English — minimal dialogue
RELEASE DATE	Completed — available immediately
GENRE	Survival Horror

TERRITORY POSITION	Worldwide excluding domestic
DELIVERY	4K DCP, IMF, 5.1 and Atmos, HOH and AD tracks available
RATING GUIDANCE	Sustained threat, expected 15 / PG-13 equivalent
SUBTITLES	Full sign-language translation notes included

A family surviving in enforced silence must deliver a baby in a world where sound attracts blind predators. Dialogue-light by design, which materially reduces dubbing cost and widens territory suitability.

- Lowest localisation cost on the slate — under 400 spoken words.
- Contained locations; strong margin profile at any acquisition level.
- Broad four-quadrant horror positioning with a family-centre emotional line.

Whiplash

RUNTIME	107 minutes
LANGUAGE	English
RELEASE DATE	Completed — available immediately
GENRE	Drama / Music / Two-hander
TERRITORY POSITION	Worldwide excluding domestic
DELIVERY	4K DCP, IMF, 5.1, stems available
RATING GUIDANCE	Language, expected 15 / R equivalent
SUBTITLES	English, Spanish, French, Japanese

A young jazz drummer and the instructor who believes greatness is forged by cruelty. Awards-corridor drama with two performances at the centre and an almost wordless final sequence that plays in any language.

Sicario

RUNTIME	121 minutes
LANGUAGE	English and Spanish
RELEASE DATE	Completed — available immediately
GENRE	Crime Thriller
TERRITORY POSITION	Worldwide excluding domestic and Latin America
DELIVERY	4K DCP, IMF, 5.1 and Atmos, forced subtitle master
RATING GUIDANCE	Strong violence, expected 18 / R equivalent
SUBTITLES	English, Spanish, French, German, Italian

A federal agent is seconded to a cross-border task force and discovers that the operation she has joined is not the one she was briefed on. Procedural thriller with significant Spanish-language content and a forced-subtitle delivery master.

Delivery And Contact

- All titles delivered against a standard international delivery schedule; full list available on request.
- Screeners issued on a watermarked, expiring link to verified buyers only.
